

Titus and Franklin counties; Titus returning county.—W. T. Smith, of Titus county, was born in Georgia, February 25, 1842; entered the Confederate service at the age of eighteen, as Second Lieutenant Company B, Sixteenth Georgia Volunteers; resigned in December, 1861, on account of ill health; re-entered the army March 4, 1862, and served during the war; moved to Texas in May, 1866, and located in Titus county, where he has served in several county offices; elected to the present Legislature as a Democrat, by a large majority over several Democratic and Greenback opponents.